

Month	Date	Event	Location	Parent Info
August	14	Welcome Dinner	Mo's {a place for steaks}	Parent Attendance: Required
		Students and a guardian will attend a dinner and will be matched with their mentor. Additionally, students will receive their INCPAS Scholars binder, INCPAS polo shirt, padfolio and business cards! Parents/Guardians: this is a chance for you to get to know your Scholar and their parent.		Dress Code: Professional Notes: One (1) parent or guardian is required to attend this dinner.
September	12 or 14	Dress &amp; Dine to Impress	Nordstrom &amp; Maggiano's	Parent Attendance: NO
		The Dress & Dine to Impress event will teach INCPAS Scholars about appropriate business attire and dining etiquette at a business event. INCPAS Scholars will receive a complete business professional outfit (at no charge) that will be worn on office visits and other INCPAS Scholars outings.		Dress Code: Business Casual Transportation Notes: Student Drop-off: Nordstrom Student Pick-up: Magiannos (at Keystone at the Crossing)
October	1	Game On: CPAs in Action	Hilton Downtown Indy	Parent Attendance: NO
		in downtown Indianapolis for the Society's annual career awareness program, Game On: CPAs in Action. Game On focuses on the importance of graduating from high school and promotes careers in the CPA profession to minority high school students. Students will participate in a variety of interactive exercises as well as go on an office visit.		Dress Code: Business Casual Transportation Notes: Students should be dropped off and picked up at the Hilton in downtown Indianapolis (120 West Market Street)
October	17	College Night	INCPAS	Parent Attendance: Invited
		Scholars will participate in a speed networking event hosted by college accounting students. This will be done in a group setting and each group will visit a table hosted by a different group of college accounting students. Each table will have a different theme. Themes include: Balancing New Freedoms, Time Management and the Recruiting Process.		Dress Code: Business Casual Notes: Great opportunity for parents/guardians to learn about the college application process and financial aid. Parents,
November	15	CPA Celebration	Indiana Roof Ballroom	Parent Attendance: NO
		This is the Indiana CPA Society's annual awards banquet. In previous years, over 600 attendees gather for this fun filled event. As all sponsoring firms attend, the Scholars are invited and will be recognized at the event. Scholars are available to sit at their mentor's table OR will be able to sit as a group.		Dress Code: Semi-formal Transportation Notes: Students should be dropped off and picked up at the Indiana Roof Ballroom (140 West Washington Street).

Month	Date	Event	Location	Parent Info
December	10	Holiday Party	INCPAS	Parent Attendance: NO
		At the Holiday Party, INCPAS Scholars and mentors will have fun and play games. They'll have a chance to share what they've done over the past four months.		Dress Code: Casual
				Notes:
January	20	CPA Day	INCPAS	Attendance: NO
		CPA Day will give the Scholars a well-rounded picture of the various areas in the CPA profession. Past presenters included forensic accountants, CPAs in nonprofit and other niche areas. The students will work in teams and solve case studies for each topic area.		Dress Code: Casual
				Notes:
February	17	Visit to Industry	TBD	Parent Attendance: NO
		Scholars will spend the day at two businesses that employ CPAs and will get a chance to explore the private side of accounting. They'll meet with CPAs in various positions and levels of the company and will have an opportunity to ask questions.		Dress Code: Professional
				Transportation Notes: Parents should drop off students at the Indiana CPA Society.
March	Week of 3th	College Visit	Indiana University	Parent Attendance: NO
		Scholars will be picked up from school in a limousine and will be taken to Indiana University Bloomington. Here the students will meet with college accounting students, accounting faculty and admissions officers. They will be given a tour of the campus, sit in an accounting class and will have lunch on campus.		Dress Code: Professional
				Transportation Notes: Parents should drop off students at the Indiana CPA Society.
April	Anytime	Classroom Presentations	Scholars School	Parent Attendance: NO
		Mentors will visit their Scholars school and will give a presentation to an accounting/business/careers class about the CPA profession and the INCPAS Scholars program. This will be a presentation that the Mentor and Scholar prepare themselves. INCPAS will provide talking points and will work with the school to coordinate this presentation.		Dress Code: Professional
				Notes:
May	TBD	Leadership Cabinet Meeting		Parent Attendance: No
		The INCPAS Scholars will be invited to attend the spring LC/ELA meeting. A group of Scholars will serve as panelists and will talk with Society leadership about their experiences in the INCPAS Scholars program. While this is not a required event for Scholars, we expect the majority will attend.		Dress Code: Professional
				Notes:

Month	Date	Event	Location	Parent Info
June	TBD	Visit to CPA Firms	Various CPA Firms	Parent Attendance: NO
		Similar to Game On: CPAs in Action, the Scholars will go on a firm tour (that will likely take 2 days). While visiting firms, the Scholars will go on tours and meet with staff at various levels to learn more about the firm and the CPA profession.		Dress Code: Professional
				Notes:
June/July	Anytime	Modified Internship	Your Firm	Parent Attendance: NO
		To give the Scholars a real-world experience, your firm will host the Scholar for up to 5 days. This will be more like a job shadow, but hopefully can be extended into a full week. However, we are flexible and understand this may be difficult to accomplish.		Dress Code: Professional
				Notes:
August	TBD	Diversity Summit	TBD	Parent Attendance: Required
		Scholars and Mentors will be recognized at the 2012 Diversity Summit. Here, the Scholars will receive their "academic gifts" for successful competition of the program and will have an opportunity to share their experiences with the attendees.		Dress Code: Professional
				Notes:

